

User Epic Story 1: As an investor, I want to see historical data on all publicly traded companies.

- User Story 1.1: As an investor, I want to see the main data points for the companies I am invested in
 - Acceptance Criteria / Tasks:
 - Data should be pulled from SEC EDGAR in order to get the most accurate information
 - Data should be the most relevant and important information for the investor
 - Data should be organized in a visually appealing way
 - Data should be located on the company page under the company name and stock chart
- User Story 1.2: As an investor, I want to be able to look at the historical data of a company to help me make financial decisions on my investments within that company.
 - Acceptance Criteria / Tasks:
 - 10K or 10Qs should be pulled from an API specified for the company.
 - The information should be broken down into balance statements, income statements, retained earnings, etc.
 - Information should be relevant for the documentation the user searched for as well as the time they searched for.

User Epic Story 2: As an investor, I want to be able to see news on publicly traded companies and regulatory/compliance.

- User Story 2.1: As an investor, I want to be able to see up-to-date news on publicly traded companies
 - Acceptance Criteria / Tasks:
 - Data needs to be updated frequently when News is published
 - Information should be organized in the News Section
 - Newest information first
 - Organized and structured
 - Shows the date and title for the news article
 - OR
 - It should be under the financial information on the company's stock page
- User Story 2.2: As an investor, I want the news I see on the application to be accurate.
 - Acceptance Criteria / Tasks:
 - Data should be pulled from SEC EDGAR in order to get the most accurate information
 - No using outside sources where accuracy could be a problem
 - News articles should be regularly checked for accuracy

